

TRAINING OFFICER, OPERATIONS (S-3)
GS-0301-12

INTRODUCTION

A. The Training Officer is located in the Operations Section (S-3) of the 3d Marine Raider Battalion (3d MRB), U.S. Marine Corps Forces, Special Operations Command (MARSOC) at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. 3d MRB is a subordinate command to MARSOC, one of four components of U.S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM). The Commanding Officer of 3d MRB is a Lieutenant Colonel who reports directly to the Commander, MARSOC. In this capacity, the Commanding Officer, 3d MRB exercises command over a force of nearly 500 active duty personnel from both the U.S. Marine Corps and the U.S. Navy. 3d MRB is one of three Special Operations Battalions in MARSOC responsible for conducting Direct Action (DA), Special Reconnaissance (SR), Foreign Internal Defense (FID) and Unconventional Warfare (UW) in support of USSOCOM tasked missions.

B. The Training Officer serves as the battalion lead for all matters pertaining to individual and collective training standards and managing facilities and resources for 3d MRB to meet those standards. As the command continues to mature it is critically important that MRB Marines are trained to standard in individual and collective tasks. The Training Officer will provide a single point of contact and ensure continuity within the command thereby ensuring that training standards are established, Marines are trained to those standards, and the battalion's resources are properly managed to facilitate the best training available.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

This position is designated NONCRITICAL SENSITIVE and requires the incumbent to obtain and maintain a SECRET security clearance.

The incumbent may be required to work other than normal duty hours, which may include evenings, weekends, and/or holidays. Periodic travel is required.

Incumbent may be required to deploy in a temporary additional duty capacity to an overseas area incident to a crisis or wartime.

The incumbent must be able to obtain and maintain a Government no-fee passport for international travel.