DOCTRINE DEVELOPMENT MANAGER
GS-0301-12

INTRODUCTION

The position is located in the G7, U.S. Marine Corps Forces, Special Operations Command (MARSOC), at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. The mission of MARSOC is to train, organize, equip, and when directed by the Commander, U. S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) to deploy task organized, scaleable, and responsive U.S. Marine Corps Special Operations Forces (MARSOF) worldwide in support of combatant commanders and other agencies. MARSOC is one of four components of USSOCOM. The Commander, MARSOC is a U.S. Marine Corps Major General (0-8) and reports to the Commander, USSOCOM. In this capacity, the Commander, MARSOC exercises command over a force of nearly 4,000 active duty personnel from both the U.S. Marine Corps and the U.S. Navy.

This position is to serve as MARSOC's Doctrine Development Manager. The incumbent, to the fullest extent, exercises independent judgment, initiative and originality in the execution of his/her duties. The position's primary purpose is to collect, review, and analyze multisource information, lessons learned, and best practices in order to develop MARSOC doctrine and tactics, techniques and procedures(TTPs).

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

1. The incumbent must possess a Secret clearance with the ability to obtain and maintain a Top Secret security clearance. The Top Secret clearance will also require the incumbent to pass a drug screening urinalysis.

2. The incumbent must be familiar with Marine Corps automated data processing equipment (computers) and capable of operating Microsoft Office programs, Microsoft Outlook, and other job related software.

3. The incumbent may be required to work other than normal duty hours, which may include evenings, weekends, and/or holidays. Periodic travel is required.

4. The incumbent must be able to obtain and maintain a Government no-fee passport for international travel.
